ABOUT OUR ORGANIZATION

The Cuban American Bar Association (CABA), established in 1974, has entered its fourth decade of excellence and dedication to the legal profession. In 1995, as part of its mission to promote diversity and opportunity in the legal services community, CABA launched the Cuban American Bar Foundation (CABF), a separate 501(c)(3) corporation, to manage and promote its efforts to endow scholarships in Florida law schools. Twenty years later, endowments of CABA scholarships at law schools exceed half a million dollars. The Foundation has endowed CABA scholarships at law schools in the following universities: Florida International University, Florida State University, Nova Southeastern University, St. Thomas University, University of Florida, and University of Miami.

In addition to the endowed scholarships at the law schools, each fall the Foundation awards an average of three to five at large scholarships to deserving students including two that are respectively named in honor of Past President Osvaldo Soto, Esq. and the late Hon. Margarita Esquiroz. In the past two years the Foundation has awarded over $25,000.00 in scholarships of $2,500.00 each on average. However, the tuition costs to attend law school keep rising at an exponential rate. Where the obstacle of discrimination in admissions has thankfully faded, the daunting tuition rates, even at state schools, now serve to keep bright and promising students seeking their place in the legal profession with their dreams unfulfilled. The Foundation, with the help of its corporate and law firm partners, can and must do more.

Fundraising events such as the CABA/CACPA Annual Golf Tournament and the largest and most well attended of all its events, the Annual Installation Gala, have enabled CABA to further its mission and also assist the Foundation with its endowment of the "CABA Scholarship Fund" which in the past several years has raised over one hundred fifty thousand dollars towards its goal of two hundred fifty thousand dollars to be funded by the end of fiscal year 2015. This fund will provide for at large scholarships to be awarded on an annual basis to law students as well as ad hoc grants to other scholars with interests that will promote excellence in the legal profession and legal services community.
