About CABA

CABA is a non-profit voluntary bar association founded in 1974 by lawyers of Cuban descent. Today, CABA's members include judges, lawyers, and law students of all backgrounds interested in issues affecting the Cuban community, as well as broader legal and human rights issues impacting minority communities as a whole.

About CABA Pro Bono

To assist the legal needs of the indigent community in Miami-Dade County, CABA Pro Bono Project was created. Putting in over 25,000 free attorney hours annually, CABA Pro Bono's mission is to change lives of children, individuals and families in need through legal advocacy by providing free legal services to those who cannot otherwise afford it — regardless of race, creed, color, gender, sexual orientation or national origin. In 1992, President George H.W. Bush recognized CABA Pro Bono nationally as a Point of Light for performing outstanding work on behalf of the community.

About CABA Foundation

In 1995, as part of its mission to promote diversity and opportunity in the legal services community, CABA launched CABA Foundation (CABF) to manage and promote efforts to endow scholarships at Florida law schools. Twenty-two years later, CABF has its own endowment of over $300,000 and almost $500,000 of endowments at seven (7) different Florida law schools. With your support, we can reach our goal of a $1,000,000 in endowments within the next two years.

CABA is at the forefront working hard to be a voice for those who are most vulnerable in our community — those struggling with poverty, adversity, and non-representation. Join us on our mission and help us reach our goals, together.
