About CABA

CABA is a voluntary bar association founded in 1974 by lawyers of Cuban descent. Today, CABA's members include judges, lawyers, and law students of all backgrounds interested in issues affecting the Cuban community, as well as broader legal and human rights issues impacting minority communities as a whole.

About CABA Pro Bono

To assist the legal needs of the indigent community in Miami-Dade County, the CABA Pro Bono Project was created. Putting in over 25,000 free attorney hours annually, CABA Pro Bono's mission is to change the lives of children, individuals and families in need through legal advocacy by providing free legal services to those who cannot otherwise afford them- regardless of race, creed color, gender, sexual orientation, or national origin. In 1992, President George H.W. Bush recognized CABA Pro Bono nationally as a Point of Light for performing outstanding work on behalf of the community.

About CABA Foundation

In 1995, as part of its mission to promote diversity and access in the legal services community, CABA launched the CABA Foundation (CABF) to manage and promote efforts to endow law school scholarships.

The Annual CABA Gala is CABA's marquee event, raising hundreds of thousands of dollars each year and attracting over 900 attorneys, judges, business leaders, and dignitaries. One hundred percent of the gala's net proceeds benefit the CABA Pro Bono Project, which provides free legal services to the indigent community in South Florida, and CABA Foundation's Scholarship Fund which provides scholarships annually to deserving law students across the county.
